

Dual Enrollment

Students enrolled in a college course leading toward a degree may earn high school credit for the following courses:

- Language Arts
- Math
- Science
- History
- Spanish
- Psychology
- Sociology

Students will earn one high school credit for English composition one and two.

Students will earn one high school credit each of the other courses completed.